

Audacious Archaeology Auction

(Public Charitable Auction)

The Society for Georgia Archaeology

You are invited! Come out for an adventurous evening and leave with a treasure!

Your good time helps support preservation of Georgia's non-renewable cultural resources and archaeological sites.

Date: Saturday, October 22, 2011

Location: Terrapin Brewery (265 Newton Bridge Road, Athens, GA)

Time: Pre-Auction Activities begin at 6:30. This includes brewery tours, beer tasting, tours of the Society's ArchaeoBus, live music, silent auction bidding, and socializing. Live auction begins at 8 pm (when silent auction closes).

Auctioneer: Colonel Wilbur C. Mull, Georgia Hall of Fame Auctioneer

Costs: Entry is free. Guests who wish to partake of the beer tasting can purchase a glass for $10 which entitles them to tickets for 32 ounces of beer.

Cool Auction Stuff

We offer two kinds of items for both the live and the silent auctions:

- 1) Ethnic Objects from Around the World (no archaeological artifacts, of course), and
- 2) Outdoor Adventure items.

The Society for Georgia Archaeology is a 501 (c) 3 non-profit. All auction proceeds fund its educational outreach for preservation.
