

Join the SGA now! Preserve—Study—Educate—Join!

Why membership in SGA?

If you don't know already, membership in the Society for Georgia Archaeology is an outstanding value! For a basic individual membership fee of $25 (other categories are available, see below or membership form), you can be engaged in archaeology in Georgia on multiple levels—local, regional, and statewide—as you join amateurs and professionals in lectures, fieldwork, meetings, and other events focused on promoting the preservation of archaeological sites, the study of archaeological data, and the education of the general public about archaeological issues.

As an SGA member, you'll receive:

Early Georgia, a research journal published twice a year containing articles about Georgia archaeology and excavations.

The Profile, a quarterly newsletter released via our website that keeps you up-to-date on archaeology in Georgia.

Invitations to participate in SGA's annual Spring and Fall meetings, held at rotating locations across Georgia, offering archaeological tours, keynote speakers and banquets, Native American technology demonstrations, historic craft demonstrations, lectures and workshops.

Information concerning Georgia's annual Archaeology Month, including activities across the state, posters, and educational packets, and coordinated with the SGA's Spring Meeting.

Use of SGA's extensive library of videos on archaeological subjects.

Opportunities to participate in local activities with one of the SGA chapters that meet across the state.

Membership Levels and Dues

* * Please remember that SGA membership runs January to December. * *

Individual $25: regular membership for an individual

Family $30: regular membership for 2 individuals in a family unit

Student $15: membership for a currently enrolled student; please send copy of ID with payment

Institutional $75: membership for libraries, universities, or organizations

Chapter $25: SGA chapters receive one regular membership with benefits

Subtract $5 from your annual SGA dues: Chapter members who also become SGA members receive a discount on SGA membership dues in their chosen category (see chapter listing and map on the website to see where you could "fit in" with SGA on the local/regional level)
